CZECH ASSEMBLY DEFIES POLITICAL RULE OF AUSTRIA

Prague Meeting Proclaimed Nation's Unassailable Right to Independence.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Representatives of the Czech nation at Prague have made a public declaration of their nation's unshakable will and unassailable right to self-determination and complete political independence from Austria. All reports of the proceedings of the Czech representatives were ordered suppressed by the Austrian censors, but details have reached the Czechoslovak National Council here and today were made public.

The Constituent Assembly of the Lands of the Bohemian Crown met in Prague Jan. 6 with more than 250 Czech Deputies of the Austrian Reichsrath, and the National Diet of Bohemia, Moravia and Silesia, elected by the free choice of the people of the Czech lands, in attendance, constituting a legal representation of the whole nation.

The declaration, adopted by unanimous vote, is looked upon as proof of the sentiment of the whole Czechoslovak nation and of their attitude toward the Government and the ruling classes of Austria. It cites the declaration of the Czechs at the time of the Franco-Prussian War, when they said: "All nationalities, be they great or small, have the same right to self-determination, and in the same manner they must be considered equal." Continuing, the present declaration states:

"We announce with bitterness that our nation was deprived of its independence and of its right of self-determination. Our Slovak branch has become the prey of Magyar brutality and unheard-of violence.

"Our nation is one with all the democracies of the world in its desire for general and lasting peace. The right of a free national life and of self-determination of nations, great and small, no matter to which state they belong, must become the foundation of all future international law, and of all harmonious co-partnership of nations, and at the same time an invaluable possession which will save humanity from the repetition of a world conflict.

"We solemnly protest against the refusal of the right of self-determination of nations at the conference at 'Freest Litovak,' and demand that, in compliance with this right, all nations, and, therefore, also the Czechs be allowed to participate and to defend their rights at the peace conference."

WOMEN'S VOTES! $100,000.

Recent Election Costs the City That Sum of Money.

Father Knickerbocker to-day was handed a bill for $100,000.

It represents the cost of election machinery that enabled his newly enfranchised daughter, to vote, and incidentally the votes of the sons who voted with the daughters.

Encamped soldiers whose homes are in the four Congressional Districts where the voting took place apparently did not take much interest in the special election.

It was expected that 2,000 would vote. Returns made today to the Board of Elections show only 253 ballots were cast.

'LEBEN FOLLOWS SEBEN.'

And the Seven Have to Dig Deep for the 'Leben.'

DALLAS, Tex., March 14.—"Seben, come 'leben!'"

Seven policemen heard it, raided a dice game and arrested eleven players.

They were fined $11, including the costs.

REDMOND EULOGIZED AT MEMORIAL MASS

Irish Leader Had Large Part in Making History of World, Says Mgr. Lavelle.

Cardinal Farley presided at the Pontifical memorial high mass of requiem for the late John E. Redmond, Irish Parliamentary leader, held at St. Patrick's Cathedral this morning. The service, and eulogy was by Mgr. M. J. Lavelle, who said, in part:

"We are gathered to mourn, honor and to learn to carry on the lesson taught by the noble life of John E. Redmond, who almost uninterruptedly for thirty-seven years had a large part in making not only the history of Ireland but that of the world.

"His energies directed in favor of the Old Age Pension Law, Land Purchase Bill and the Home Rule Bill, the last of which he succeeded in placing on the statute books, although he failed to make it an actuality, may be enumerated among those deeds which met with his approval and support."

Among those present were Lord and Lady Aberdeen, Clarence Mackay, Justices Martin J. Keogh, John W. Coff and President Justice Victor L. Dowling, James O'Brien, L.L.D.; former Justice Morgan J. O'Brien, T. P. O'Connor, Shane Leslie and Dr. Robert Emmett.

Surrogate Must Decide if This Is Enough "Pocket Money."

Is 10 cents a day sufficient to supply all the little comforts an elderly man in retirement might wish? This question was raised to-day when the will of Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, who died Jan. 20, was filed with Surrogate Schuch in the Bronx.

The will, drawn Oct. 13, 1914, disposed of $5,000 in cash and certain real estate among three funds for Henry Miller, the widower, and for his two sons, Henry Jr. and Charles. Henry Jr., the executor, is charged with the care of his father.

The will provided that the son should give his father a room to live in "and 10 cents a day pocket money."

Women's New Street Suits

Eton and New Treatments of Materials Exemplified

Third Floor.

A new handling of the Eton and tunic skirt has taken place—exemplified smartly in a navy gabardine, braid-trimmed.

The usually conservative hip-length coat is given fresh Spring charm, a new treatment at the bottom, shown in a model in tan Poiret twill as tucks; in another of navy serge as a simulated hem turned up on the outside. New button trimmings are shown.

Fine silk linings give a last elegant touch to these suits which in finish as in style and material are unusual values at

49.50

Women's All-Silk and All-Serge Frocks

Third Floor.

The materials accepted for this season—serge, taffeta, Crepe de Chine, Georgette and foulard—are conceived in a new group of fresh Spring dresses offered special to-day.

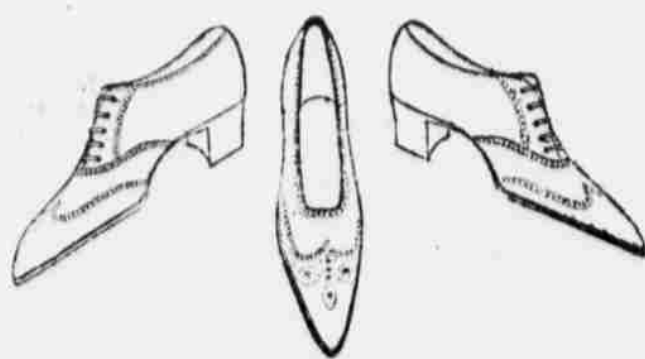

Many smart touches are borrowed from the tailored suit. The Eton is charmingly present. Button vestees give importance and air.

There are modifications of the surplice consistent with costumes intended for wear upon the street.

New soft Spring shades, Victorian foulard and bright gingham patterned in taffetas and crepe meteors.

The whole purchase, now fresh and new, will be presented at special pricing.

Here Is the Correct Spring Footwear for Women

NO walking costume can be entirely smart—entirely correct—for this season without the finishing touch of the new season's walking shoe.

The sketches above present the correct new types, an oxford and a pump. Note the flat English heel; the flattened forepart; the narrow tapering toe—a dainty, most attractive last.

The oxford comes in the new shade of tan at $8.00; in Black Russia, $7.50. Pumps, black and tan, $7.00

Spats in a full assortment of colors

'MADONNA OF THE FUTURE' IMMORAL, POLICE CHARGE

Warrants Asked for Cast, but Only Summons for George Broadhurst Is Issued.

Detective Poole of Acting Chief Inspector Daly's staff appeared in Jefferson Market Police Court to-day and, after consulting with Assistant District Attorney Kastindam, requested Chief Magistrate McAdoo to issue warrants for the arrest of the actors and actresses in a play now appearing at the Broadhurst Theatre called "The Madonna of the Future."

According to Detective Poole, he witnessed a performance and considered it immoral.

Magistrate McAdoo finally issued a summons for George Broadhurst, owner of the theatre, who was in court and who voluntarily accepted service.

The summons is returnable at the Chief Magistrate's office next Wednesday.
